

Glasgow

- PATH Scotland

If you are living in Glasgow and are unemployed or under-employed. PATH Scotland can support you via telephone, online or in person – whichever is most comfortable for you. Support offered on the programme includes improving employment opportunities, building resilience, and challenging barriers. If you would like further information about this organisation, or any other programmes, please contact Fatima Iftikhar (fatima@pathscotland.org.uk) or Tracey Young (tracey@pathscotland.org.uk or 07947 494070). Please use Amina MWRC as your reference.

- CEMVO Scotland

Cemvo offer free support and various training opportunities in the following areas:

- CV & Application Support
- Interview Techniques
- Volunteer & Work Placements
- Training – Offer SQA accredited training

Contact Mona Awan on mona.awan@cemvoscotland.org.uk or call 0141 248 4830 and ask for Mona. Please use Amina MWRC as your reference.

For further information visit their website: https://www.cemvoscotland.org.uk/programmes/steps-into-employment/?doing_wp_cron=1671018891.9574050903320312500000

- SMART WORKS Glasgow & Edinburgh

SMART WORKS Glasgow aim to empower women and help secure employment through clothes, coaching and confidence. The service is for any unemployed women on her journey to finding work. When you have a confirmed job interview in place or through their bespoke career coaching, they can support you through their dressing and interview preparation service. Through their Career Coaching service, you will receive an hour-long coaching session delivered over zoom or phone call. A trained coach will work with you to identify tangible next steps to maximise chances of securing an interview. Whether that's through refining your CV, your application, personal statement etc.

You can access their services on a referral basis by contacting Amina MWRC on contact 0141 212 8420.

- WSREC Scotland

WSREC Scotland's employability and training services provide free support to minority ethnic individuals, as well as refugees and asylum seekers, across the West of Scotland. These services work with minority ethnic individuals within Renfrewshire and Glasgow, providing employability support and guidance to employability pathways such as:

- modern apprenticeships
- work placements
- volunteering

- education
- paid employment

This is done through one-to-one support and group training. To access this service, please use the link below or call 0141 337 6626. <https://wsrec.co.uk/what-we-do/employability-and-training/> Please use Amina MWRC as your reference.

- Awaz FM – Glasgow

For employment support, please contact iqra@awazfm.co.uk or call the reception office 0141 420 6666 and ask to speak to Iqra.

- Fair Start Scotland

Fair Start Scotland is Scotland's employment support service. This service has been developed by listening to people with lived experience and those who use employment support services. To find out more please follow the link below:

<https://www.employabilityinscotland.com/employability-services/fair-start-scotland/individual/>

We have been informed that the last date for referring anyone who would benefit from the employability support that is offered via Fair Start Scotland will be on 31st March 2024. Although they won't be able to take anymore referrals beyond the 31st March 2024 the team will continue to work with those customers who are already on the programme. This applies to where tailored 1-2-1 employability support to people who reside in Inverclyde, Renfrewshire, East Renfrewshire, and East & West Dunbartonshire who want to either secure sustainable employment or self-employment.

- People Plus Group Ltd (Glasgow)

Please contact People Plus Group for further information, their contact detail are as follows: Telephone: 0141 471 5056

Email: infofairstart@peopleplus.co.uk

Web: www.peopleplus.co.uk

Twitter: @PPFairStartScot

- Motherwell & Wishaw Citizens Advice Bureaux – Cabs to careers service, provide employability support their details can be found via this link here. <https://www.motherwellwishawcab.org.uk/services/cab2careers> .